

SpineCraft News Release

The first AIM MIS surgeries in the US were a success. Feedback from surgeons has been very positive and they were particularly pleased with instrument performance and the exceedingly small incision required.

The Pistolgrip TLIF Cage Inserter was well-suited to the MIS approach. One of the comments from the first US surgery was “The pedicle screw part of the surgery went quickly and smoothly”. Additional one-level and two-levels cases have been scheduled.

